

New Fortress Energy Signs Gas Supply Agreement with Energiza in Puerto Rico

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 22, 2025-- New Fortress Energy Inc. (NASDAQ: NFE) ("NFE") today announced the execution of a 20-year gas supply agreement ("GSA") with Energiza to provide natural gas to a 478 MW combined-cycle power plant being developed in San Juan, Puerto Rico, located adjacent to NFE's existing San Juan LNG import terminal. The Energiza power plant will be the first power plant constructed in Puerto Rico since 1995 and is expected to commence operations in 2028.

"The long-term partnership between Energiza and NFE will greatly benefit Puerto Rico and we're excited to be part of this historic milestone," said Wes Edens, Chairman and CEO of New Fortress Energy. "This power plant will serve as a much-needed cleaner, reliable, and efficient power source to enhance Puerto Rico's aging power system."

Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains certain statements and information that may constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements contained in this press release other than historical information are forward-looking statements that involve known and unknown risks and relate to future events, our future financial performance or our projected business results. You can identify these forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking words such as "expects," "may," "will," "can," "could," "should," "predicts," "intends," "plans," "estimates," "anticipates," "believes," "schedules," "progress," "targets," "budgets," "outlook," "trends," "forecasts," "projects," "guidance," "focus," "on track," "goals," "objectives," "strategies," "opportunities," "poised," or the negative version of those words or other comparable words. Forward looking statements include our expectation regarding the development of the Energiza power plant as well as the expected timing of the power plant's operations. These forward-looking statements are necessarily estimates based upon current information and involve a number of risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which are outside of the Company's control. Actual results or events may differ materially from the results anticipated in these forward-looking statements. Specific factors that could cause actual results to differ from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to: risks related to the development, construction, completion or commissioning schedule for the Energiza power plant; risks related to the operation and maintenance of the power plant; failure of third-party contractors, equipment manufacturers, suppliers and operators to perform their obligations for the development, construction and operation of the power plant; the receipt of permits, approvals and authorizations from governmental and regulatory agencies on a timely basis or at all. These factors are not necessarily all of the important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any of the Company's forward-looking statements. Other known or unpredictable factors could also have material adverse effects on future results. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made, and we undertake no duty to update or revise any forward-looking statements, even though our situation may change in the future or we may become aware of new or updated information relating to such forward-looking statements. New factors emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for the Company to predict all such factors. When considering these forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the risk factors and other cautionary statements included in New Fortress Energy Inc.'s annual and quarterly reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which could cause its actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement.
