NEW FORTRESS ENERGY PROVIDES BUSINESS UPDATE

NEW YORK, Oct. 29, 2026 — New Fortress Energy Inc. (NASDAQ: NFE) today announced that it has agreed to lease ten mobile turbines that can generate up to 300 megawatts of power to a US-based investment-grade company. The lease is for an initial period of five years.

The turbines are expected to be delivered in stages beginning in the fourth quarter of 2026 and finalized in the first quarter of 2027. The transaction is expected to be accretive to NFE's earnings and enhance its liquidity profile.

"We evaluated several opportunities for these turbines, and we believe that partnering with an investment-grade counterparty in the United States best aligned with NFE's priorities," said Wes Edens, Chief Executive Officer of NFE. "It provides the Company significant, high-quality cash flows, puts our assets to work more quickly than alternative uses, and serves the growing demand for power in the USA."

FLNG 1 Update

NFE confirmed its FLNG 1 liquefier remains on track to return to service in the fourth quarter of 2026 based on its most recent discussions with the manufacturer of the turbine.
